Great Is Thy Faithfulness

Words: Thomas O. Chisholm (1923) · Music: William M. Runyan (1923)

Public domain: the original words and tune of this hymn are in the public domain in the United States. This reimagined version, with new lyrics and arrangement, is by Hymn & Hallelujah. Made with human direction and AI assistance.

VERSE 1

I've walked through days I didn't understand
Held broken dreams within my hands
I've asked You why, I've wondered when
I'd ever see the light again
But looking back, I see it now
You never left, You never bowed
Beneath the weight of all my fears
You held me close through all those years

PRE-CHORUS

And every morning, every night
Your mercy met me right on time

CHORUS

When the ground beneath me changes
When the road ahead's unclear
You're the promise that won't leave me
You're the voice that calms my fear
Through the valleys, through the victories
Through the joy and through the pain
Great is Your faithfulness
Yesterday, today, the same

VERSE 2

I've seen the beauty after rain
Watched hope come growing through the pain
The doors that closed, the dreams delayed
Became the paths Your wisdom made
And all the things I thought I'd lost
You turned to blessings through the cross
Not every road was smooth or straight
But You were faithful all the way

PRE-CHORUS (repeat)

CHORUS (repeat)

BRIDGE

You were there in the waiting
You were there in the storm
You were there when my heart was breaking
You were there when hope was born
And if tomorrow brings a mountain
I don't know how to climb
I'll remember every moment
You were faithful every time

FINAL CHORUS (repeat)

OUTRO

Yesterday, today, forever
Your love will never change
Great is Your faithfulness
Great is Your faithfulness
To me...