Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

Words and music: Helen H. Lemmel (1922)

Public domain: the original words and tune of this hymn are in the public domain in the United States. This reimagined version, with new lyrics and arrangement, is by Hymn & Hallelujah. Made with human direction and AI assistance.

VERSE 1

When the morning feels uncertain
And the road is hard to see
When the questions have no answers
And the weight is more than me
There's a peace beyond the worry
There's a hope beyond the night
And a voice that gently whispers
Child, just turn toward the light

PRE-CHORUS

I don't need to know tomorrow
I don't need to understand
I just need to keep my eyes on You
And place my life within Your hands

CHORUS

Turn your eyes upon Jesus
Look full in His wonderful face
Let the noise of the world grow quiet
In the wonder of His grace
When the storms of life surround you
And the road ahead's unclear
Turn your eyes upon Jesus
And remember He is near

VERSE 2

There are days I chase the answers
Trying hard to find my way
Holding tightly to the pieces
Of the plans I made yesterday
But the things I thought were certain
Can be gone before I know
Still the One who holds forever
Will not ever let me go

PRE-CHORUS (repeat)

CHORUS (repeat)

VERSE 3

When I cannot see the sunrise
When the darkness feels too long
When my faith is barely breathing
And I cannot find my song
You are steady, You are faithful
You are closer than my fear
And the moment I look toward You
I remember You are here

CHORUS (repeat)

OUTRO

Turn your eyes upon Jesus
Let the world grow quiet now
In the stillness of His presence
Every fear can bow